

I believe that by removing the "established business relationship" qualification from the fax regulations forces groups to obtain written consent or their information might be viewed as commercial in nature. Continuing Medical Education (CME) activities are educational in nature not commercial, but would be effected. This puts unnecessary constraints on an already overloaded system.